

A Spa in the Wilderness

The infrared light and technology used in all of our treatments is deeply healing and safe. Infrared rays provides the longest spectrum of light with increased penetration, aiding in healing the skin and body by stimulating deeper levels of cell activity.

Choose from our menu of detoxifying and brightening treatments.

FACIALS

All facials include exfoliation, extractions and a hydrating mask. Your facial includes massage of the face, neck and shoulders. While your mask is activating, choose from an additional scalp, arms or legs and foot massage.
